

Annual Report on ACTIVITIES OF CASH (01-04-2014 to 31-03-2015)

Organisation of seminar/ workshop

1. Debate on” Female Foeticide: Reasons, Effects on society and Suggestions to Eliminate it from Society” was organised on 12/09/2014 in dept of Chemistry, HNGU, Patan. 31 students participated in the debate. Dr. J. U.. Nanavati, Princ. Law College, North Gujarat Society, Patan and Dr. Manish Ramavat, Professor, Dharpur Medical college, Patan acted as judges. To encourage the participation, three students namely Parmar Praful, Prajapati Varsha and Gajjar Ushma R. were declared First, Second and third respectively.

2. State Level Seminar On DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WOMEN was jointly organized by Committee Against Sexual Harassment, Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan & Women's International League for Peace Freedom (WILPF), India on September 24, 2014.

The Seminar has tried to analyze some issues related to

- Discrimination in legal rights
- Discrimination in economic rights
- Discrimination in education rights
- Discrimination social rights
- Discrimination in cultural rights
- Discrimination in fetus, infancy and child-hood rights
- Discrimination in motherhood and old age rights

In the seminar 125 participants participated, the participants were from PG and Research scholars from the campus and off the campus. Many non working women from Patan city also participated in this program.

- 30 papers were presented and Dr. Lalit Patel, Princ Arts college NGES, patan and Dr. K.K. Patel, HOD Hospital management chaired the session.

3. One Day Program On CELEBRATIONS OF NATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY

was organized on January 23, 2015.

Venue: Department of hospital Management. Hemchandracharya North Gujarat University, Patan, Gujarat– 384 265

Objectives of Celebrating National Girl Child Day are

- It is celebrated as a national observance to increase the consciousness of the people and offer new opportunities to the girl child in the society.
- To remove all the inequalities faced by the girl children of the Indian society.
- To make certain that every girl child is getting proper respect and value in the Indian society.
- To ensure that the girl children are getting their all the human rights in the country.
- To work against diminishing the child sex ratio in the India and change the people mind about the girl child.
- To initiate couple towards the girl child by increasing awareness about the importance and role of the girl child.
- To address the girl children issues associated to their health, respect, education, nutrition and etc.

There were 100 participants and there was also a slogan competition and 70 students participated in it. Dr. D. M. Patel, Dep. Registrar, HNGU, Patan Mr. J. D. Damor, N.S.S. Coordinator, HNGU, Patan acted as Judges in slogan competition. Three students namely Prajapati Mahavir kumar, Sachi and Anjali Patel were declared First, Second and third respectively.

4. ONE DAY NATIONAL WORKSHOP on EMPOWERING THE WOMEN IN THE WORKPLACE & CELEBRATION OF INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Organised at Kilachand Rangh Bhavan on 5th March, 2015.

In this workshop, there were 330 participants. Amongst participants, there were postgraduate students, M. Phil., Ph. D students, Teaching and non teaching faculty from university campus, teachers from affiliated colleges of HNGU and other parts of Gujarat. The workshop was attended by both male and female participants.

To achieve the above objectives of the workshop, an essay writing competition was organized on topic Multitasking And Modern Women. 25 students participated in the essay competition and Joshi Puja P.(from Arts college, NEGS,Patan) Sukanya and Manisha Sharma(from Architecture Department, HNGU, Patan) were declared as First, Second and third in the above essay writing competition. The essays were evaluated by Dr. K. L. Rathod, Assoc. Prof. Commerce and Management Dept. , H. N. G. U., Patan.

Objectives of the workshop:

- The removal of barriers to the full and equal participation of women in the workforce.
- Full and genuine access to all occupations and industries, including to leadership roles for women and men.
- Elimination of discrimination on the basis of gender particularly in relation to family and caring responsibilities for both women and men.
- The educate employees about sexual harassment Act.
- To remove the doubts that if female employees were made aware of their rights, they might be chances of getting sexual Harassment cases in the office, sometimes on false ground.
- To change thought process of all employee including female employees.
- To create man-woman harmony at the work-place, building confidence amongst women and empowering them to stand up against sexual harassment. It should not about estranging men.

Two technical sessions were organized on

1. Role of Judiciary
2. Role of Police